

The Arunachal Times
June 03, 2009

Golf orientation camp starts at Raj Bhavan Golf Course

ITANAGAR, June 2: Golf Orientation Camp was teed off today at Raj Bhavan golf course.

The Camp is an initiative of the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh and is being organized in the State for the first time. The Department of Sports and Youth Affairs, Govt. of Arunachal Pradesh is organizing the camp.

The camp is being conducted at Raj Bhavan Golf Course, which has been revived by the Governor in a record time of six month and also at Indira Gandhi Park, Itanagar.

Educating the participants, most of who are taking up golf for the first, Chief Coach Ali Sher from Indian Golf Union and his Assistant Shyam Lal briefed them on the basic of the sports and kits used in it.

47 participants are taking part in camp. Students from 13 schools are attending it with ages ranging from 8 to 22 years. Participants are from the schools of Arunachal Pradesh, Manipur, Assam and Meghalaya. Personnel from Raj Rifles are also attending the camp. Lots of girl students and ladies are amongst the participants.

Sports and Youth Affairs Secretary, D.S. Pandit, inaugurated the camp and extending gratitude to the governor Gen JJ Singh for the unique opportunity provided to the participants and for throwing open the Raj Bhavan golf course for the camp. (See p-3)

Golf orientation camp...

(From P-1) Secretary also extended his appreciation to the Indian Golf Union for deputing a coach and his assistant for the weeklong event. He expressed his hope that the participants will be immensely benefit from it.

Teeing off the orientation camp, Pandit said golf as beautiful sports, as it includes lots walking and lots of activities in open air. He added that it was proud privilege of the Sports and Youth Affairs department to organize the event.