Empowering rural communities, particularly women and youth, through accessible credit and livelihood opportunities is essential for achieving inclusive and sustainable development in Arunachal Pradesh: Governor to NABARD officials

The General Manager-cum-Officer-in-Charge of the NABARD Regional Office, Itanagar, Shri S.V. Ranga Rao, called on the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt Gen KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), at Lok Bhavan, Itanagar, on 30th May 2026. During the meeting, they discussed strengthening rural livelihoods and enhancing economic opportunities for farming and rural communities across the State.

The Governor emphasized the vital role of NABARD in facilitating sustainable agriculture and integrated rural development. He advised the officials to ensure the timely and uninterrupted flow of credit to the agricultural sector, small-scale enterprises, cottage and village industries, artisans, and rural entrepreneurs, enabling them to contribute meaningfully to the State's economy.

Referring to his recent interaction with women Self-Help Groups (SHGs) at Boleng, the Governor observed that the women of Arunachal Pradesh are hardworking, resilient, and enterprising. He noted that with proper guidance, skill development, and access to financial resources, they can emerge as powerful agents of socio-economic transformation. He urged NABARD to continue supporting and nurturing such grassroots initiatives.

Highlighting the importance of financial inclusion, the Governor stressed the need to strengthen microfinance institutions, SHGs, and rural banking networks to ensure that financial services reach underserved and economically weaker sections of society. He said that empowering rural communities, particularly women and youth, through accessible credit and livelihood opportunities is essential for achieving inclusive and sustainable development in Arunachal Pradesh.

The Regional General Manager of NABARD assured the Governor that the organization would continue to work with dedication and commitment to meet the aspirations and expectations of the people of Arunachal Pradesh, particularly those belonging to the rural and agrarian communities.

PRO to Governor
